✓ 13. (Unclassified - WPB) LEGISLATION Called Ed Hall, Counsel, Senate Rules Committee, who is handling the Federal Election Campaign Act. I discussed the Agency's problem with Senator James Allen's (D., Ala.) amendment on financial disclosure. Hall fully appreciated our point and suggested that I provide him with some back-up material on this. He also suggested that we send a quick note directly to Senator Howard Cannon (D., Nev.), Chairman of the Committee, to alert him of the problem.

14. (Unclassified - WPB) LEGISLATION Called Dick Gentry, Legislative Assistant to Senator James Allen (D., Ala.), concerning Senator Allen's floor amendment to the Federal Election Campaign Act on financial disclosure. I explained the Agency's problems with this section, and he seemed to understand our position. I told him I would drop off a fact sheet and some suggested remedial language with him.

✓ 15. (Unclassified - WPB) ADMINISTRATIVE - DELIVERIES Dropped off with Ed Hall, Counsel, Senate Rules Committee, and Dick Gentry, Legislative Assistant to Senator James Allen (D., Ala.), fact sheets and suggested remedial language on the financial disclosure section of the Federal Election Campaign Act.

16. (Unclassified - GLC) LIAISON Mildred Ward, in the office of Senator John Stennis (D., Miss.), called and said the Senator wanted to talk with me personally, but since he was tied up she would relay his message. Ms. Ward said that the Senator again wanted to express his apologies for cancelling yesterday's session, but wanted to be sure that he would get a chance to talk with the Director very soon. I told her that Mr. Bush was tied up today, but possibly next week we could get together.

17. (Unclassified - GLC) LIAISON Called Randal Teague, on the staff of Representative Jack Kemp (R., N. Y.), and told him that the Congressman had requested information on Cubans in Rhodesia when I saw him yesterday. I asked whether the Congressman would be interested in having someone come up to speak on this subject. Teague said that Mr. Kemp is out of town today, but if he is interested in more information he will call me back next week.
